Description: A heartbreaking, full-color graphic novel of the refugee drama. In the French port town of Calais, famous for its historic lace industry, a city within a city arose. This new town, known as the Jungle, was home to thousands of refugees, mainly from the Middle East and Africa, all hoping, somehow, to get to the UK. Into this squalid shantytown of shipping...

Review: Illuminating and heart wrenching. I wonder how many reviewers who criticize the book as preachy or political have actually been in a refugee camp or a crisis situation with refugees? Humanity is both good and evil and this book shows both - with feeling. It's easy to judge, much harder to be kind....
